School is not only a place to acquire knowledge but a laboratory of character building. Here we not only study topics, but we also learn about life values, ethics and responsibility. On the occasion of New Year it is necessary that we recognize the hidden abilities within us, utilize the time and move towards our goal with devotion. New Year is not just an occasion to change the calendar, but a symbol of self-reflection, resolution and new beginnings. The past year has given us many experiences, challenges and learnings. Taking inspiration from these experiences, we should move forward with more diligence, discipline and positive thinking in the new year. In the new year, let us resolve that we will not only work for our personal development, but also contribute positively to the upliftment of the school, society and nation. New Year brings new energy, new hopes and new successes in our lives— with this wish we wish you all a very Happy and Blessed 2026.

The Weaver

My life is but a weaving
Between my Lord and me.
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.
Ofttimes He weaveth sorrow,
And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper
And I, the underside.
Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why
The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold & Silver
In the pattern He has planned.

"Shaping Tomorrow"

How character, competence and contribution Define us."

1. Character-Who you are when no one is watching
Character is your inner strength. It includes qualities like honesty, kindness, discipline and respect. Your character decides how you behave, how you treat others, and how much people trust you. A strong character makes you a person others can rely on.
2. Competence – What You Can Do.
Competence means skills + effort
The way you learn, practise and improve every day makes you to become capable of doing things confidently and correctly. Whether it is studying, playing a sport, solving problems, speaking, leading any role, planning – competence makes you better than yesterday. Competence helps us to perform better, grow stronger and succeed in life.
3. Contribution – What you Give to the World.
Contribution : Doing something that helps others or improving others' situation. Contribution is your positive impact. It can be small- helping a friend, sharing, leading a team, taking responsibility, serving others. When you contribute, you can make your school, home and community a better place. It builds empathy, kindness and responsibility and gives us a feeling that-Our life has purpose.
Why these three matter for your future :
* Character earns you respect.
* Competence opens doors to opportunities.
* Contribution gives you purpose and happiness. When you build all three, you don't just succeed- you become someone who inspires others.

Hardwork is the key to success

- * Hardwork is like a fuel that powers our dreams and ambitions.
 - * It's the determination to keep pushing forward even when things get tough.
 - * We all have some goals, some are to achieve and some to dream. To achieve all our dreams and goals the weapon is our hardwork.
 - * Hardwork makes us strong physically and mentally.
 - * Hard work teaches discipline, patience and persistence and helps to develop a "never give up" attitude in the face of challenges.
 - * Success is the result of perfection, hardwork, learning from failure, loyalty and persistence.
- 99 % Hard work + 1 % luck = 100 % result.

10 best eating habits for good health

1. Superhero Breakfast : Eat fruits and milk in the morning so your tummy gets super power and you don't fall asleep on your school desk.
2. Rainbow plate rule : Try to eat many colours on your plate – red tomato, green bhindi, yellow dal – like you are drawing a rainbow with food.
3. Chew-Chew Train : Chew every bite slowly like a train going chuk-chuk 20 times before it reaches the stomach station.
4. Water Wizard : Drink enough water so your body works like a cool machine but don't turn into a water balloon by overdoing it.
5. Junk food visitors : Chips, cola and candy are like naughty guests. Allow only sometimes, not every day as permanent house members.
6. Tiny Tummy Boss : Take small portions first ; If your tummy boss says "still hungry", then only take a second round.
7. Hand wash Magic : Wash hands with soap before eating so the invisible germs monster slips and falls into the drain.
8. Table talk Time : Sit and eat at the table with family instead of running around like a superhero with a flying chapathi.
9. Kitchen Helper Hero : Help parents wash veggies or mix salad so you feel like the chef of a five-star home hotel.
10. Sleepy snacks No-No : Avoid heavy, oily snacks just before bed so your stomach can also sleep and do not complain all night.

Keechu Monkey Can't Sleep

Keechu Monkey can't sleep. His mother is singing. His father is dancing. His brother is jumping. Keechu monkey goes out. The moon is shining. The birds are sleeping. Keechu monkey sits by the river. The fish are leaping. The frogs are smiing. Keechu closes his eyes. And before you can say, "Hip hip hooray !"

"Keechu monkey is asleep ! Keechu monkey is dreaming..... and he falls right into the river ! SPLASH ! Keechu monkey is wide awake. He swims to land. He is cold. He runs back home. His mother is singing. His father is dancing. His brother is jumping. His sister is crying. But Keechu monkey doesn't mind.

Green Hydrogen

Green hydrogen is hydrogen gas produced by splitting water (H₂O) into Hydrogen and oxygen through electrolysis, a process powered entirely by renewable energy sources like solar, wind and hydro power.

This zero-emission method makes it a clean and versatile energy carrier that can be used to decarbonize sectors that are hard to electrify such as fertilizers steal, and long-haul transportation.

Key advantages :

Zero-emission : It is a clean fuel produces no carbon dioxide during production or use.

Versatile : It can be stored, transported and used in a variety of applications, making it a key component for energy storage and a pathway to a low-carbon future.

FRIENDSHIP

Having a supportive friend is a wonderful gift, but having friends who not only stand by you but also correct your mistakes and push you to grow into a better person – that's a rare and priceless blessing. Friendship isn't just about comfort ; it's about guidance, honesty and encouragement to become the best version of yourself. A friend is more than one in a million. Finding a loyal friend is as hard as finding a tear drop in an ocean ! If you have them, cherish them !

Internet breaks relation

- * Reduces face-to-face interactions : Excessive time on devices can lead to less quality time spent together, creating a sense of neglect and a "third wheel" dynamic.
- * Causes comparison and jealousy : Social media can lead to a constant comparison with other people's seemingly perfect relationships, creating insecurities and dissatisfaction.
- * Increases conflict : Online miscommunications, or "wars of words" can cause misunderstandings and arguments.
- * Blurring of boundaries : Sharing too much personal information online can make relationships vulnerable to criticism and gossip.

Benefits of eating fruits

Nutrient-rich : Fruits are packed with essential vitamins (C and A), minerals (like potassium) and antioxidants that support body functions, boost the immune system, and protect against cell damage.

Heart health : The fibre, potassium and flavanoids in many fruits help manage blood pressure and cholesterol, reducing the risk of heart disease and stroke.

Digestive health : The high fiber content promotes a healthy gut, prevents constipation, and can reduce the risk of obesity and Type 2 diabetes.

Weight management : Fruits are filling and can be a low-calorie, nutrient-dense substitute for higher-calorie snacks, helping with weight management when eaten whole.

Disease prevention : A diet rich in fruit can lower the risk of chronic conditions such as heart disease, stroke, type 2 diabetes and certain cancers.

Eye health : Compounds like lutein and zeaxanthin, found in fruits like tomatoes and carrots, help protect the eyes from blue light, reduce the risk of age-related macular degeneration, and many fruits help in preventing cataracts.

Success

Life is tough for everyone
For some it's even tougher
However rough you think it is
Don't think it can't get rougher.

It doesn't matter where you start
Because you're not a tree
With hard work and persistence
Go where you want to be.

You have the power to change your life
Success you can pursue
With grit and determination
And the talent nature gave you.

DON'T GIVE UP

A long time ago, a boy named Robney lived in a village. He was happy with his family. But one year, the rain stopped. The village faced a big drought. The land became dry. Crops dried. Even the trees and animals also became dried. The stream has very little water left. One night, Robney spoke to the villagers. He said, "I've heard old stories about a river under the ground. May be we can dig and find it." The villagers agreed. They started digging together, but after few days, they got tired and gave up. Robney did not stop. He said, "I believe we will find water. I won't give up." He dug every day. At last, he reached deep enough, and water came out ! The villagers were very happy. Robney's hard work saved the whole village. He told them to never give up too soon. KEEP GOING.

Friendship

Friendship is an important asset of our life. A man is known by the company he keeps. A person who has true friends in life is lucky. Friendship has no boundaries, no parameters and no conditions. Good friends show us the right path and make our life a better place with a lots of love and happiness. Friendship is built on respect and trust. A true friend is the greatest of all blessings. True friend is one who stands up for you when times are tough. A true friend can see the tears behind your smile and reason behind your success. We are incomplete without our friendship.

L.Rithwik Sai Teja, 6K

"Friendship is not about whom you know the longest. It is about who came and never left."

"Friendship is a part of the heart, the heart is a part of feelings. Feelings are the symbol of care. And care is the special word of friendship."

Self Confidence

Self-confidence means believing in yourself-even when things are hard, even when people don't believe in you, and even when you're afraid. It's not about being perfect. It's about knowing you can try, knowing you can grow, and knowing that your voice matters. Sometimes, we compare ourselves to others and feel small. But remember this "You are unique."

You have something special, No one can do things exactly like you. Confidence is not something we're born with.

Its something we build – step by step, day by day.

So speak up. Take that chance and don't give up.

Because the more you believe in yourself, the more you'll see how strong you truly are . Happy New Year....

A positive mind is the first step towards success

A positive mind means thinking good thoughts, even when things are hard. In school life, we all face exams, pressure and mistakes. But if we stay positive, we can handle anything better.

Being positive doesn't mean that problems go away, it means we believe we can solve them. A smile, kind words and hope can make our days brighter.

• Tips to stay positive :

- 1) Start your day happily-think of one nice thing in your life every morning.
- 2) Don't compare yourself - everyone learns in their own way.
- 3) Learn from mistakes - they help us grow stronger.
- 4) Be with good people - friends who support you make life better.
- 5) Believe in yourself - you can do more than you think.

True Friendship

A crab was once running on the sea shore and was admiring its beautiful foot-prints. Suddenly a huge wave splashed and washed away the foot-prints. The crab told to wave :- "I considered you as one of my best friends, then what made you do this?"

The wave replied :- A fisherman was following your foot-prints, that's why I cleared it off....

Moral of the story :- "Relationships means caring beyond imagination".

Did you know ?

Your eyes are full of tears...even when you're not crying. Your eyes need to stay moist all the time, so they produce a steady stream of tears. Crying is what happens when you produce more tears than normal.

- * Tear fluid is made in glands above your eye. It spreads out over the front of the eye, forming a thin protective film.
- * When you blink, tears are pushed through two tiny holes & into a tear duct that drains out through your nose. They are 2 types of tears.
- i) Reflex tears: When something nasty gets into your eye, you produce lots of reflex tears.

Ex: Onion contain a chemical which irritates your eyes. Reflex tears wash away that chemical, soothing your eyes.

ii) Emotional tears: The tears you cry because of pain, sadness or joy are called emotional tears. They contain hormones and even painkillers which are not found in reflex tears.

* No one knows how it works, but these tears do seem to help to cheer people up.

SUCCESS

Success is the goal of everyone's life. No one can achieve success in life without hard work. Everyone in the world has some dream or goal, to achieve which he works sincerely. It is a good thing to dream about some goal in life and achieving that goal is our success. We should work hard and use our time properly to make our life's dream come true. Success comes only to those who sincerely work hard for their success. People should use their time properly and work hard and work accordingly to make their dreams come true. Failure is also a part of success. We don't need to be disappointed by our failure, rather we need to learn from our failure. Where have we made mistakes. We need to identify them and correct them.

A successful person is the one who uses his time properly to achieve his goal. Achieving success requires a lot of Hard work, Dedication, Motivation etc. Success comes only to those who pursue their goal with their determination. It can never be taken advantage of by those people who only dream of being successful in their goal and do nothing to achieve it.

The Proud Rose

Once upon a time, in a desert far away, there was a rose who was so proud of her beautiful looks. Her only complaint was growing next to an ugly cactus. Every day, the beautiful rose would insult and mock the cactus on his looks, all while the cactus remained quiet. All the other plants nearby tried to make the rose see sense but she was too swayed by her own looks. Once in scorching summer, the desert became dry, and there was no water left for the plants. The rose quickly began to wilt. Her beautiful petals dried up, losing their lush colour.

Looking to the cactus, she saw a sparrow dip his beak into the cactus to drink some water. Though ashamed the rose asked the cactus if she could have some water. The kind cactus readily agreed, helping them both through the tough summer as friends.

Moral: Never judge anyone by the way they look.

Tips to Turn pressure into power

- 1) Pause before you react: Take a deep breath, slow down for a moment, and allow your mind to settle. A calm mind makes smarter decisions.
- 2) Break big tasks into small steps: Pressure feels heavy when everything comes at once. Divide your work into tiny, do-able parts – each small win reduces stress and boosts confidence.
- 3) Focus on what you can control: Not everything is in our hands, so put your energy into what you can influence – your effort, your attitude, your actions. This turns helplessness into power.
- 4) Use Pressure as Motivation: Pressure can push you to work harder, think creatively and become stronger. See it as a challenge, not a threat.
- 5) Talk to yourself positively: Replace thoughts like "I can't do this" with "Let me try my best." Your self-talk decides your strength under pressure.
- 6) Learn from every challenge: Every stressful situation teaches you something – discipline, courage, patience or resilience. Use every challenge to become stronger for the next one.
- 7) Ask for Help when needed: Real strength is knowing when to reach out. Talking to a friend, teacher or family member can lighten the pressure and give you new ideas.

My Time as School Pupil Leader

To be an SPL had always been my dream throughout my schooling. I used to ask God everyday to help me become an SPL. Finally, God gave me this wonderful opportunity and I thank God everyday for this blessing. I also thank our Principal madam and all the teachers for choosing me as an SPL.

V Jaya Prakash
Raj 10J

The day I got installed as SPL, I was super nervous but thrilled too. Standing on stage amidst cheers from students and teachers, I felt a surge of pride and responsibility, vowing to lead with dedication. Through my term, I performed my duties with enthusiasm – leading the assembly, sorting out fights between friends, reprimanding and sometimes complaining. Being SPL was a great opportunity for me. It built up my confidence, taught me real leadership, and empathy. I got better at talking to people and working as a team. This will definitely help me in my future studies and whichever career I pick – showing me leadership is all about serving others.

My Experience as the SPL

Becoming the School Pupil Leader has been one of the most proud and meaningful experiences of my school life. When I was selected for this role, I was filled with a mixed feeling of happiness, responsibility and determination to give my best to the school. I learned how important it is to listen patiently, understand different perspectives and communicate clearly. Whether it was helping to maintain discipline or managing assemblies, every task taught me something new about leadership. One of the most valuable lessons I learned during this journey was leadership and responsibility. I realised that true leadership is not about authority, but about setting a good example for others to follow. There were times when things didn't go as planned, but those moments helped me learn problem solving skills and how to stay calm under pressure. I also learned the importance of punctuality, honesty and fairness. I am extremely grateful to our hon'ble Principal mam, my teachers and school management for trusting me with this position. Their guidance and support encouraged me to perform my duties sincerely. I also thank my fellow students for their cooperation and respect, which made my journey as SPL memorable. In conclusion, being the SPL was not just a position but a learning experience that shaped my character. The lessons I gained will always stay with me and guide me in the future. I will always cherish this opportunity and remain proud to have served our school as its SPL.

GOOD MANNERS

Good manners cost nothing, but they help us a lot. Good manners are necessary in life as they help us to grow in personal and professional life. A person is judged by his behaviour. Being polite, humble, respectful etc... are good manners. A man with good manners earns the love and respect of all. Parents should teach their children about their behavior with family, teachers, friends, relatives etc..A person who does not have good manners loses dignity and self-respect. If there is "No" good behaviour the studies are of no value.

The tiger and the Woodpecker

A woodpecker was pecking the branch of a tree when he heard a pathetic cry, "Help me, please. Somebody help me please!" The woodpecker flew in the direction of cry. Soon he found a tiger with tears filled in his eyes "What happened?" asked the woodpecker. "A tiny piece of bone pricked into my mouth. It still remains between my teeth. It is very painful," cried the tiger, "Open your mouth and I shall remove the bone," said the woodpecker. The tiger opened his mouth and the woodpecker pulled the bone out. "Thank you" said the tiger and left happily. After a few days, the woodpecker happened to meet the "Hello tiger! How are you ?" enquired the woodpecker with affection. The tiger was very happy to meet the woodpecker. They both turned into good friends and lived happily.

Words are magic

Our words have so much power and we don't realize it. Your words have ability to transform your life and life of others. Be impeccable with your word. Mean what you say and speak with intention. Words are seeds that do more than blow around. They land in our hearts not the ground. Be careful what you plant and what you say. You might have to eat what you planted one day. Words are like keys. If you choose them right, they can open any heart and shut any mouth.

"So think wisely before you speak".

Life of a Farmer

The life of a farmer is characterized by hard work, long hours and a deep connection to the land, but it also filled with challenges such as unpredictable weather, market fluctuation and financial struggle. Farmers are responsible for all aspects of crop and livestock production from planting and nurturing to harvest and maintenance. The success often depends on natural factors like rainfall and the absence of pests. Despite these hardships, many find satisfied in their work and they knowledge that are feeding the world. So, I thank farmers for their hard work.

The Elephant and the Ants

A big proud elephant loved bullying smaller animals. Every day he sprayed water at the ant hill, making life difficult for the tiny ants. One day, the ants decided to teach him a lesson. They crawled into his trunk and started biting him from the inside! The elephant danced and howled in pain until he begged for forgiveness. He promised to never hurt the ants or anyone else again.

Moral of the story: Be kind to everyone, no matter how big or small they are.

A Farewell Message to Our Seniors

As you stand at the threshold of your board exams, we, your juniors, want to take a moment to celebrate the journey you've had here at Good Shepherd School. You haven't just been our seniors; you've been our mentors, our teammates, and our friends.

Our Best Wishes for Your Success:

Aim for the Stars: We know how hard you've worked. We truly hope to see your names shining among the State Rankers this year.

Stay Focused: These final exams are your time to shine. Believe in your preparation, stay calm, and give it your absolute best.

Carry the Legacy: You represent the spirit of Good Shepherd. We know you will perform in a way that brings great pride and honor to our school name.

A Final Note: While we are sad to see you leave these hallways, we are incredibly excited to see where your talent takes you next. Go out there, ace those exams, and show the world what "Shepherdians" are made of! Wishing you all the very best for your Board Exams and a bright future ahead!

The Dawn of freedom

Many, many men and women who laid the foundation for this remarkable achievement were not alive to see it happen. Their sacrifices are a life lesson for us. Whatever may our age, race, religion, or gender be, we must strive to fulfill our constitutional and civic duties. Only then can we ensure accountable and good governance in the present and future.
